2018 AICP Foundation Madison Ave. Open Golf Tournament

The 2018 Madison Ave. Open - Monday, July 30th

Quaker Ridge Golf Club - 146 Griffen Ave. Scarsdale, NY 10583

Registration/Breakfast - 9:30am

Shotgun Start - 11:00am

Come join the AICP Commercial Production community as we return to Quaker Ridge Golf for the annual Madison Ave. Open Golf Tournament. Ranked the #71 golf course in the country by Golf Digest, the par-70, 6,772-yard A. W. Tillinghast design – often called “Tillie’s Treasure” – is frequently mentioned when accomplished golfers are asked to name the best course in the Metropolitan New York area.

The day will be packed with fun and games, including a pre-tournament putting contest, a hole-in-one contest, longest drive, closest to the pin and a birdie contest, with winners walking away with great prizes. Guests will also be able to bid on a bevy of fantastic items up for auction before the tournament and during the post-round dinner buffet.

All proceeds will benefit the AICP Foundation, which supports diversity initiatives in commercial production and advertising. Your sponsorship investment in this event is 100% tax deductible.
