AUDIT RIGHTS/DEFINITIONS

Contracting Client shall have the right to audit Producer's Cost Plus Bid productions. Contracting Client agrees that audits shall occur no later than one year after the date hereof. Contracting Client shall not have any right to audit Producer's Firm Bid productions.

In a Cost Plus Bid production, Producer shall estimate the cost of all elements of a production based on the specifications provided by Contracting Client. A fixed fee is added to the total of the costs of all the elements, which total becomes the contract price. The Producer executes the actual production in accordance with the specifications, the objective being to bring the Specified Commercial(s) in on budget. Overages must be communicated and approved in advance by Authorized Representative, whenever possible. The actual costs of each Specified Commercial(s) are accumulated and reported on the bid form, reflecting both overages and underages. At the conclusion of the job, the Producer does a cost-accounting on the job, and the Contracting Client is billed the actual direct costs plus the predetermined fixed fee.

In a Firm Bid production, Producer shall submit a bid identifying direct costs, production fee, and director's fee. Once the bid has been accepted, it becomes the contract price for the job.

17. CONTINGENCY AND WEATHER DAYS

В.

7. CONTINGENCY AND WEATHER DAYS

A contingency day is any day where a scheduled shoot has been prevented from occurring due to circumstances beyond the control of the Producer.

These circumstances may include but should not be limited to:

(1) Weather conditions (rain, fog, sleet, hail, or any adverse condition that is not consistent with the prescribed shooting conditions desired by the Contracting Client).

(2) Injury, illness, or absence of Agency / Client supplied elements (e.g. key talent, color correct products).

(3) "Force majeure" (meaning but not limited to, earthquake, riot, fire, flood, volcanic eruption, acts of war, strikes, labor troubles or unrests, civil authority, terrorism, epidemic(s)/pandemic(s) and acts of God). The Producer recognizes its obligation to minimize contingency day liabilities and will apply accepted industry cancellation practices.

If requested and practicable, the Producer will quote an estimated exposure figure as a contingency day cost for weather. This will be a cost per day figure. However, this figure does not include the cost of premiums for crew or suppliers (i.e., should the contingency day fall on weekends, holidays or premium days based on consecutive employment), and may need to be adjusted based on the timing of the contingency day occurrence as it relates to the scheduled day.

If a contingency day situation arises, the cost of the contingency day postponement shall consist of:

(1) All costs incurred or committed as a result of the contingency day.

(2) Directorial costs as follows:

(a) Full director's fee as bid if the shoot is postponed the day prior to the shoot day.

(b) 50% of the director's fee as bid if the shoot is postponed two or more days prior to the shoot day.

(3) A service charge of no less than 15% of all costs incurred or committed as a result of the contingency day.

If a shoot is cancelled due to a contingency/weather day, the Producer shall be paid in accordance with section 18 below. Contingency/weather days continuing for three (3) or m

CANCELLATION AND POSITONEMENT A cancellation or postponement is defined as a total cancellation of the production of the Specified Commercial(s) or a rescheduling of the production of the Specified Commercial(s) to a later specific date, in either case caused or directed by Agency/Client.

If notice of cancellation/postponement occurs DURING or is given to the Producer ONE TO TEN BUSINESS DAYS prior to the commencement of the shoot, the Contracting- Client will be liable to the Producer for:

(1) All costs incurred or committed as of the date of cancellation/postponement.

(2) Full director's fee as bid.

(3) Full production fee on the job as bid.

If notice of cancellation/postponement is given to the Producer MORE THAN TEN BUSINESS DAYS prior to the commencement of the shoot, the Contracting- Client will be liable to the Producer for:

(1) All costs incurred or committed as of the date of the cancellation/postponement.

(2) Not less than 50% of director's fee as bid.

(3) Not less than 50% of production fee on the job as bid.

In the event of postponement, and prior to the recommencement of production, at the direction of the Producer, the Contracting-Client shall either execute an overage or a new contract, and the Producer shall be paid for such overage or new contract in accordance with this section, and with the payment provisions hereof, including an initial payment prior to the recommencement of production.

event of cancellation, the Contracting-Client shall pay the Producer's production fee, director's fee, and costs in dance with this section. Invoices for cancellation are due and payable upon receipt.

The Producer shall have the right to cancel without penalty in the event the Contracting-Client has breached this Agreement or defaulted on payment to the Producer.
